The Glen Ridge Club Concert.

The concert given at the Club House on the evening of the 9th inst., was a genuine surprise to the audience in respect to the high excellence of the performance. The entertainment was under the direction of Mr. John Hyatt Brewer, organist of the Lafayette Ave. Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, and the parts were rendered by Boylston Gibe Club, Miss Marie Van, saprano, and Miss Eleanor Hooper, Violinist.

These artists gave to the members of the Club and their friends who were present an entertainment which, though brief, was perfect of its kind and as it was comparatively unheralded, surpassed all expectations which had been formed of it.

The Glee was well rendered and showed evidence of careful training.
Miss Van has a voice of rare purity, used with the skill of a trained and accomplished artist. Miss Hooper won the admiration of the audience, not only by the skill which she displayed, but by the grace of her manner.

The following is the programme:

PART I.
Glee—"Gay Pilgrim," Mangold.
"Air de Salome," Massenet. Miss Van.
"Spin, Spin," Jungst. By Glee Club.
Violin Solo—"Legende," Wieniawski. Miss Hooper.
"Swing Low," adapted by Mr. Brewer. By Glee Club.

PART II.
"In Absence," Quartet, Buck. By Glee Club.
Soprano Solo—"Once Again," (b.)
"Thou Fairest Vision," Lassen. By Miss Van.
"The Owl and the Pussy Cat," Ingham.
By Glee Club.
Violin Solo—"Air Variet," Vioutemps.
By Miss Hooper.
"The Singer's March," Becker. By Glee Club.

A Fine Entertainment.

The entertainment given Tuesday evening in Dodd's Hall by the Berkeley Sunday School was an exceptional one. Though not a pronounced success pecu-narily, otherwise it was. The program was a good one, a pleasant feature being a fan drill, executed by twenty misses of the school. Their performance was such as to reflect a great deal of credit upon their accomplished leader, Miss Laura Sidman. A piano solo by Mrs. Arline Far-rand Gorow, who has few equals in manipulating that instrument, and instrumental music by the Euterpean society, who gave promise by their performance of the treat in store to be enjoyed at their own concert on the 15th inst., were very enjoyable. Prof. Fabian's readings were also much enjoyed, showing him a true artist. A number of tableaux were given and were well conceived and artistically carried out. The success of this feature was due to the generous assistance rendered by Mr. W. B. Chambers. The ladies also earned a reputation for ability and good taste in the production of so interesting an exhibition, involving much care and labor.

Bloomfield Y. M. C. A.

A mass meeting will be held under the above auspices at Westminster Church on Friday evening, Dec. 17th, at 8 o'clock.
A concert has been kindly tendered by the Euterpean Society, to precede the meeting, at 7:45 o'clock. Prominent speakers will address the meeting, among whom will be R. M. Curney, Esq., Secy. of Y. M. C. A. of New York, Rev.

Dr. Storrs of Orange, Rev. Albert Mann of Bloomfield. Kindly bring your home copies of Gospel Hymns.

TO THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN:

The Rev. Saml. W. Duffield's name has been used as an opponent of the movement looking towards the organizing a Young Men's Christian Association, I desire to say in his behalf that before his sickness he expressed himself heartily in his favor and as ready to work for it as you.

The Late Eldridge Vandewerke.

Bloomfield has lost another of its aged and useful citizens in the death of Mr.
Eldridge Vandewerke. Mr. Vandewerke was born in Waterford, New York, and while yet a young man moved from Albany—where he had entered upon business—to New York. During forty-five years he was a merchant of the latter city, making his home some eighteen years in New York and some seven years in Brooklyn. Twenty years ago he brought his family to Bloomfield: a part of the time living on the old Newark road, and most of the time in his residence on Bellevue avenue.

He was universally respected as an upright business man. While not succeeding in later years as he did in former years, et want of success did not mar his reputation and character for strict honesty.
He was a genial friend, a devoted husband, and a kind father. In all the relations of life he won the good will and affection of his associates. As a member of the Baptist church of our village, he was honored by being chosen to serve, at one time as Superintendent of the Sabbath school and for many years as a Deacon of the church and a Trustee of the church and Society.
He was repeatedly made chairman of the Board of Trustees.

About nine years ago he came near losing his life by falling from the platform of the G. L. R. R. depot, his head barely escaping from being crushed by the cars.
Until a short time ago he appeared to be in full vigor; but in May last disease fastened upon him, and after months of suffering and weakness, from which he at times seemed to be improving, he passed away last Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock.
His funeral occurred at the Baptist church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, the interment being made in the family lot in Greenwood cemetery. Rev. J. W. Scales, D. D., who was his pastor in Brooklyn, Rev. H. F. Smith, D. D., who was his first pastor when he came to this place, and his last pastor, Rev. E. D. Simons, took part in the funeral services. Each of these ministers spoke in the highest terms of him, as a man and Christian and personal friend.

The singing was peculiarly beautiful and appropriate. Mrs. Richard Stout, Mrs. F. B. Stone, Mr. D. G. Garabrant and Mr. Charles Martin led in the part of the service. A memorial sermon will be preached at the Baptist church next Sabbath morning, at which time will also be commemorated the death of Claude Harvey.

BLOOMFIELD BRIEF LOCALS.

—Charles M. Lockwood, builder, has this week raised the frame of a new house for Mr. G. S. Porter, on Hillside Ave.

—You need not go out of Bloomfield for watch or clock repairing. Mr. Breton, Glenwood avenue, will suit you.

—The Newark Dry Goods firm of Isaac N. Doty & Co. are offering unusual inducements to purchasers of holiday goods.
Read their advertisement in our columns, and give them a call.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Holland and son, of East Orange, started Tuesday evening on a pleasure trip to visit Mrs.
Holland's southern home, in Fayetteville, N. C.

—Mr. S. A. Murden, who will be remembered as a former resident and real estate dealer in Bloomfield, writes a letter to THE CITIZEN, from Florida, which will be found interesting to all, especially any who think of going to Florida.

—The difficulty with the organ at the wedding Wednesday evening in the First Presbyterian church, was caused by the keys "clipping," and was not the fault of the organist. It is liable to occur to any organ, owing to extreme changes of temperature.

—An entertainment or exhibition will be given by the members of the Park M. E.
Sunday school in the church on Monday evening, Dec. 13th, to consist of recitations, dialogues, singing, etc. All who enjoy hearing the children will then have an opportunity.

—The concluding lecture of the Ragan course—"Through Old Mexico with a Camera"—was given in Library Hall on Monday evening. It proved to be one of the most interesting and instructive Mr.
Ragan has yet produced. The entertainments have proved uniformly successful, and Essex H. & L. Co. will realize over one hundred dollars by them.

—Mrs. Hannah S. Davis, wife of the late Caleb S. Davis, and mother of County Superintendent Davis, died on Monday last aged 87 years. Her funeral took place on Thursday afternoon, at the residence of the late Dr. Joseph A. Davis.

—The Gelatine Plate Engraving and Printing Company is a new firm about commencing business in Bloomfield. Mr.
Richard Hardy is connected with the firm as business manager. They are fitting up the former place of business of Mr. Hardy, on Bloomfield avenue, in a thorough manner for their work, which will be the reproduction by a new process, of all kinds of engravings, music, book pages, etc., and printing from the plates so obtained.

—The concert of the Euterpean Society, to take place in Westminster church next Wednesday evening should not be forgotten by our music-loving people. It will be a fine treat. The artists engaged to take part are new to Bloomfield, and of acknowledged reputation. We owe it to the Euterpean Society to respond generously and make this, their first concert, a fine success.

—The Rev. Mr. Wells, who has been boarding for some time in the village, has received a call to the Reformed Church of Franklin, New Jersey. Mr. Wells will be remembered by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church for his ministration in the pulpit as well as for his earnest prayers and remarks in the weekday meetings. He was formerly settled at Fairfield, New Jersey. He has been preaching for several Sundays at the church in Franklin, and it is understood that he will accept the call.

—On Wednesday evening Mr. George W. Tower, of Glen Ridge, and Mrs. Laura Gertrude, daughter of Mr. Jas. R. Davis, were married in the First Presbyterian Church. The church was filled, many of the guests being from out of town. Rev.
Mr. Ballentine performed the ceremony, which was impressive. The bride was attired in dark blue velvet. After the wedding a pleasant reception was given at Mr.
Davis' residence, on Monroe Place. The young couple will reside at Glen Ridge, where a new house, nearly completed, awaits them.

Montclair.

—Montclair Hall was well filled on Monday evening last when the New York Philharmonic Club gave their second subscription concert. The programme included four numbers by the club, a flute solo by Eugene Wener, and a violin solo by Emil Schenck, all of which were well received. The soloist was Mrs. Emil Gramm, soprano, of New York, and she sang so acceptably that the audience demanded an encore at each appearance.

The Township Committee held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, but transacted only routine business. An informal discussion took place on the water question, but there was no action. It is proposed by the committee to order a special water election, probably in January, or at least before the Spring election, at which the question of whether a water supply is or is not desired by the citizens will be submitted to the legal voters.

—The Rev. George F. Warren, of Newark, administered the ordinance of baptism to eight candidates for membership of the Montclair Baptist Church, Tuesday evening. The Baptist Society having been recently organized and having no church of their own, the service took place in the Congregational Church.

Nickel Plating A Monument Fund.

George W. da Cunha, the artist, has started at Montclair, a club known as the Grant Monument Memorial Nickel Fund Association. No member is allowed to contribute more than five cents; each member is to collect as many five cent pieces as possible, but must not accept more than five cents from any one person.
Heads of families may contribute five cents for each member of their family. It is recommended that such clubs be formed throughout the country, each one contributing being enrolled a member, and the names and amounts collected, be sent to Secretary R. T. Greener, at No. 146 Broadway. The Montclair has started the ball rolling by contributing five cents each—Mr. Ladd, Mrs. Ladd, Jacob Baker, Miss McDermitt, George W. da Cunha, George W. da Cunha, Jr.; Mr. Evans, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. R. W. da Cunha, Walter Baker, Miss Madge Baker. Total, sixty cents.

The amount previously reported together with this contribution makes the grand total of the monument fund $123,710.21.

A Letter from Florida.

LEESBURG, SUMTER CO., FLA., Dec. 1st, 1886.

TO THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN:
Within the past month I have received thirteen letters from your town, five from Montclair and two from Orange, all asking me questions about Florida and as to whether I would advise the writers to come to Florida. From what a majority of the writers say I am led to believe that they have very little means and have fair sized families. Now before attempting to answer them at all I wish to distinctly understand that my purpose is to discourage any coming except those who have some little means with which to obtain a start. I am asked by some "how much." That is impossible to say, but would not advise a single man, if he can make a living at home, to come to Florida for the purpose of starting a grove with less than one thousand dollars, and not then unless he is both able and willing to work. Of course a man of family ought to have more capital. I do not think Florida the section for the very poor, who have to rely entirely on their labor, as wages are not high and work is not always to be had.
Laborers receive from $1.00 to $1.50 per day and are lucky if they can keep busy half the time. Mechanics receive from $2.00 to $3.50 per day and have still less work.

Board costs from $12.00 to $35.00 per month and of course is higher in hotels.
Clerks in stores receive from $5.00 upwards per week, with a supply far above the demand. The attraction to Florida is of course for orange groves and climate.

The latter is enjoyed by all who come.
The former by all who stay. A man without a little grove is here like an elephant without a trunk—"something wanting."

A man when he decides to settle must necessarily locate. That is, buy either a grove or buy some unimproved land and make or cause a grove to be made. Much the cheapest way is to buy the land and make the grove, as a grove just commencing to bear fruit is well worth from $500 to $1,000 per acre, and will if located at all desirably, command a ready sale. A grove can be made and brought to the same state for a great deal less money.
As soon as a man locates and gets his place in shape he plants his garden (suitable to the season) and finds a ready market for whatever garden truck he raises.
If a man is industrious he can make truck garden pay largely while making a grove. Of course our soil being very light and sandy requires liberal fertilizing, but in no State in the Union will fertilizing pay as well or as quickly as here. A neighbor of mine has made watermelons pay him nearly $2,000 net on a ten acre patch, and the same year raised sweet potatoes on the same land that sold for over $800, after the melons were marketed, thus making on the ten acres over $2,600, over all expenses clear. There are crops of course that pay much higher profits but of course the risk is proportionate with the profit.

Strawberries have paid clear over $1,000 per acre. Green peas for northern market have paid fabulous prices and have made most complete failures, which can also be said of cucumbers, snap beans, tomatoes, etc., etc. One of the most profitable safe crops is winter cabbages, which can be made to pay from $250 to $400 per acre, and can be followed with field peas, then sweet potatoes, three crops a year.

So much for agriculture. Mercantile business is overdone. Competition is great and most necessary goods can be bought nearly as low as in your town. A very comfortable dwelling can be built for from $500 upwards. Schools and churches are plenty. Railroad facilities are excellent.
We get the New York Mail only one day old. We are 200 miles south of Jacksonville, in what is known as the great lake region of the Orange and in a section as healthy as can be found in the United States. The death rate of Florida is lower than that of any other State. One of the writers asks if a lady of very small means can make a living here. I would hate to advise a lady to come and rely on her own exertions for her support. Orange groves and truck farming are the main support and reliance of the country, and it is safest to rely on agriculture in an agricultural country. If your readers would like to know more of orange groves I will be pleased in another letter to give them such information as I have picked up during the five years of my residence here. In the mean time I remain yours, etc., S. A. MURDEN.
